Summer Concert Series Returns to Temple City Park

Free weekly concerts kick of June 15, with performances scheduled through mid-August

TEMPLE CITY, CA (June 1, 2022)— Grab your dancing shoes and get over your inhibitions—one of Temple City's most prized annual traditions, the outdoor summer concert series, returns with a full lineup scheduled across 10 weeks beginning June 15.

In 2020, the Summer Concerts went virtual due to the pandemic and in 2021, the Summer Concerts returned with a shorter lineup of seven artists. This year—in the 26th year of the annual concert series—the City will be back in full swing (literally) with The Wise Guys Big Band Machine, playing swing and big band music.

This summer's program includes crowd favorites like the nationally recognized Creedence Clearwater Revival tribute group Fortunate Son (July 27) and Motown cover band Stone Soul (June 22). Designed to spotlight genres as wide ranging as classic rock and disco, the full schedule is as follows (all performances are subject to change):

June 15	The Wise Guys Big Band Machine (Swing and big band)
June 22	Stone Soul (Motown)
June 29	Cold Duck (Top 40)
July 6	The Funky Hippeez (Disco and funk)
July 13	Kings of 88 (Classic piano rock)
July 20	Eagles Ronstadt Experience (Best of The Eagles and Linda Ronstadt)
July 27	Fortunate Son (Best of Creedence Clearwater Revival)
August 3	Sergeant Pepper (Best of The Beatles)
August 10	Pop Vinyl (Disco and pop)
August 17	The U2 Experience (Best of The U2)

Admission is free and open to everyone. No smoking, alcohol, canopies, umbrellas or dogs are permitted in the concert area. The series runs Wednesday nights from June 15 through Aug. 17, with each show beginning promptly at 7 p.m. Guests should plan to arrive early with their own blankets and chairs, as performances typically draw more than 1,000 concertgoers.
