A. 2024 REPORT CARD

Parks and Recreation Coordinator Ramos stated that the subcommittee met in December of 2024 and January 2025 to discuss the 2024 end of year report card, accomplishments and report card formatting. She then asked the Committee to provide input on the presented report card.

Committee Member Robertson suggested to rephrase item three on page three regarding YWCA to specify that admission and groceries were free.

Committee Member Liou suggested that Ex-Officio Member Chavez is named Mayor instead of Councilmember, to remove the comma after the word "on" (page five), remove the underscore after the parenthesis (page 5) and adjust the margins.

Parks and Recreation Coordinator Ramos stated that she will rephrase the highlight regarding YWCA, the comma should be retained as the language was taken directly from the Senior Master Plan, the underscore will be removed, margins will be adjusted and that the title of Councilmember for Ex-Officio Member Chavez should be retained.

Committee Member Jambazian suggested enlarging the Committee photograph on page one of the report card.

Parks and Recreation Coordinator Ramos stated that the photograph could be enlarged. She stated that the final draft of the 2024 Report Card will be presented to the City Council and displayed on the City's website.

The Committee had no further comments, therefore received and filed the report with the suggested recommendations.

B. SENIOR RESOURCE BINDER

Parks and Recreation Coordinator Ramos stated that a collection of resources has been compiled in effort to support seniors. She stated that the resources include health services, housing options, financial assistance, legal support, transportation and community programs. She stated that the Senior Resource Binder as presented to the Committee is general information. She stated that resources that require an application process will be printed in the binder on separate pages. She concluded the report and asked the Committee for input.

Chair Powell suggested including information for MediCare and Chapman Funeral Home.

Committee Member Rodenbucher suggested to specify which Adult Day Care Centers speak English and/or Chinese languages and to include San Gabriel Valley Community Food Pantry.

Committee Member Robertson suggested to add Foothill Community Center to the Senior Resource Binder and to include the contact information for Temple City Hall.

Committee Member Liou suggested to amend the title "Police Agencies" to Law Enforcement and amend "Temple City Police Department" to Temple City Sheriff Station. She also suggested to add City of Monrovia law enforcement agency to the Senior Resource Binder.

Committee Member Wintercorn suggested to add City of Arcadia law enforcement agency to the Senior Resource Binder.

Ex-Officio Member Rosso suggested to include VCA Animal Hospital under the title Pets and Animals in the Senior Resource Binder.

Ex-Officio Member Sneed suggested to include Pasadena and San Gabriel Valley Humane Society.

Committee Member Jambazian suggested to remove the words, "Temple City" under the title Housing Assistance.

Chair Powell encouraged the Committee to email further suggestions to Ms. Ramos for consideration.

The Committee had no further comments, therefore received and filed the report with the suggested recommendations.
